Speeches were also made by Hon. Herbert G. Peters, Rev. S. Ithea Preston, D. D.; James W. Mert, Mayer George M. Warren, A. Gray Gilmer and Dr. John T. Henderson. These talks were all pointed and emphasized the rights of the Virginians in the matter now under consideration. Mr. Gilmer and that the inspector's reports upon which the order had been entered to abolish the office were biased from cover to cover of the pamphlet, in which cover to cover of the pamphiet, in which they had been embraced. He went on to explain how these reports had been Minneapolis - Minneapolts - Louivillebiased. He said that the inspectors would first tell the men they sought to interview that to establish a separate office would mean to lose city de livery, and that it also meant tha the postmaster would have to defray every item of expense in equipping a building. Under these circumstances, Mr. Gilmer said these inspectors found it easy to get biased reports and state-ments which did not represent the real sentiments of the people.
